

QUEEN-TIYE Abeja Akamefula

61-42 Central Ave, Ridgewood, NY 11385

cell: (617)833-1023

email: queentiyeakamefula@gmail.com

EDUCATION

B.F.A. in Theatre

Playwrights Horizons Theater School

Experimental Theater Wing

Tisch School of the Arts, New York University (graduated May, 2019)

Playwright/Deviser	An American Feast	Joe's Pub at The Public (In collab. with The Civilians)	2018
Playwright	NIGHTSWIMMING	NYU Tisch: Experimental Theater Wing	2019
Playwright	NIGHTSWIMMING	Ars Nova: ANT Fest	2021
Playwright/Producer	FETTUCCINE	The Wild Project	2023
Playwright/Producer	FETTUCCINE	Chain Theater	2024

Artist Bio:

Queen-Tiye Akamefula is a Black/Filipina, actor/playwright based in Queens. Her work explores topics that span across social and identity politics. She graduated in 2019 at NYU's Tisch School of the Arts under the studios Playwrights Horizons and the Experimental Theater Wing. Her work has been shown at institutions such as Ars Nova (NIGHTSWIMMING), Joe's Pub (An American Feast), The Wild Project (Fettuccine), and the Chain Theater (Fettuccine). Her award winning play "Fettuccine" was recognized at All Out Art's Fresh Fruit Festival in 2023 for their "Fresh Fruit Spirit Award" which recognizes art "Fostering Pride, Survival, History, and Progress". Queen-Tiye's work fights to bring awareness to the world we live in today and the issues that shape us as a community, all while being a little silly with it.